MCM holds session on developing Proof of Concept for innovative ideas

The Aman Sandesh Times Network
Chandigarh: The Institution Innovation Council, Mela Chand Mahajan DAV College for Women, Chandigarh organized a session on How to Develop Proof of Concept for Innovative Ideas/Finding Fund for POCs Developed and Linkage with Innovation Institutions for Mentorship Support.

Innovator - Ms. Shrawasti Vashist, Managing Director, Mela Radical 360 Degree Pvt. Ltd. was the resource person for this informative session. Ms. Vashist motivated the students to explore career opportunities in entrepreneurship.

She elucidated the four steps of Business Plan viz. Idea/Innovation, Proof of Concept, Prototype and Manufacturing. The chief principle of EWOT (Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities and Threats) analysis which assess internal and external factors, as well as current and future potential, were explained in detail. Ms. Vashist also enlightened the students about the grants and funding for prototype stage that are available from BIRAC, Government of India, and many other international private agencies.

The students actively participated in the session and sought answers to their queries during the discussion.

Principal Dr. Nisha Bhargava lauded the initiative of MCM IC, directed towards creation of an ecosystem that supports culture of innovation and entrepreneurship among students. She added that such an ecosystem is imperative for creation of an "Innovation Hub".

Expert Talk on Financial Literacy held at GGSCW-26

The Aman Sandesh Times Network
Chandigarh: Post Graduate Department of Commerce of GGS Indraprastha College for Women, Sector-26, Chandigarh, organized an Expert Talk on Digital Security, Financial and Consumer Awareness on 24 March 2022.

The expert talk was delivered by Dr. Monica Aggarwal of PGDC-15, Chandigarh. She introduced the topic by providing valuable insights into how financial planning can greatly enhance the returns for valued investors. She further explained the various investment alternatives available for investors and risk-return trade off and also emphasized on the power of compound interest along with the various factors to be considered before borrowing money.

The report answered various queries at the end of the session. The talk was attended by around 100 students of the College.

Principal of the College, Dr. Jasvinder Kaur appreciated the efforts of the organizers and students for being a part of this interactive session and making it a great success.

4 Cities of Punjab record 'satisfactory' Air quality

The Aman Sandesh Times Network

Chandigarh: The air quality in four cities of Punjab has improved to a 'satisfactory' Air Quality Index.

As the AQI data released by the Punjab Pollution Control Board (PPCB) for June 2021, Jalandhar, Patiala, Ludhiana, and Khanna have recorded improvement with AQI 99,

94, 96, and 82 respectively. Punjab Pollution Control Board has been monitoring Air Quality Index (AQI) at six cities of Punjab including Jalandhar, Patiala, Mandi Gobindgarh, Ludhiana, Khanna, and Amritsar. While the maximum value of the Air Quality Index (AQI) was 113 at Amritsar and the maximum value was 82 at Khanna.

Mandi Gobindgarh (105) and Amritsar were described as moderate concerning the other four cities.

A special talk on 'Equity Markets as an asset class' held at GGSCW-26

The Aman Sandesh Times Network

Chandigarh: Rotaract Club of Guru Gobind Singh College for Women, Sector-26, Chandigarh in collaboration with Rotary Chandigarh Midtown organised a special talk on the topic 'Equity Markets as an Asset Class.' The talk was delivered by Mr Nitin Kapur, Director, MS Finline Pvt Ltd, Business Associate of IIFL.

The main objective of the talk was to apprise the students of Equity Markets and to create awareness about investment.

Mr Kapur discussed with the students appropriate time and techniques to start investing in equity markets. He also informed them about various companies and the scope of investing in them.

Mr Kapur concluded the discussion by asserting the need for students to know about the significance and benefits of investment and to start investing for the betterment of their future.

The Principal, Dr Jatinder Kaur, appreciated the efforts of the club in enlightening the students about the vital topic.

A four-day workshop for the students of Fine Arts organised at GGSCW-26

The Aman Sandesh Times Network

Chandigarh: Department of Fine Arts of Guru Gobind Singh College for Women organised a four-day workshop in the College campus.

Mr. Kamal Dhallwal, a renowned painter and sculptor from London was the eminent Resource Person for the workshop. He started his lecture with explanation of handling of clay as a medium and techniques of relief work. The acclaimed artist along with the students made a base with clay and moulded reliefs on it in sections. The students also curiously tried their hand and made symbols of academic tools, such as pens, brushes, books, mobile phones, laptops, Zoom Google-Meet etc. and showcased their artistic skills. The guest artist also demonstrated how to use clay-tools and clay for doing the relief and work.

Another eminent personality Dr. Saroj Rani, retired professor from the department of Fine Arts, Punjabi University, Patiala also visited the workshop and appreciated the efforts of the students of the College.

The Principal of the College Dr. Jatinder Kaur applauded the faculty member of Fine Arts for organising the workshop and expressed hope that the students would reap maximum benefit out of the rare occasion.

More than 70 students attended the workshop
