Message from Principal

“Reach high, for stars lie hidden in you. Dream deep, for every dream precedes the goal.”

- Rabindranath Tagore

With great pleasure, I welcome you to Guru Gobind Singh College for Women, Sector 26, Chandigarh. Established in 1973 by the Sikh Educational Society, Guru Gobind Singh College for Women has stepped into the 50th year of its glorious existence. The college has grown and evolved to become one of the esteemed and prestigious colleges of Panjab University.

The spirit of the College comes alive in its motto, SHUBH KARMAN TE KABHUN NA TARON, implying 'never to stray from the path of righteousness.' Catering to the all-round development of its students, the College fosters in the young minds the spirit of healthy nationalism, secularism, social responsibility, moral uprightness, feelings of compassion and love, care for environment, and above all a life of service and sacrifice as exemplified by Guru Gobind Singh Ji. Be it academics, extra-curricular or co-curricular activities, GGSCW consistently works to provide its students with stimulating teaching-learning experience augmented with Value Added Certificate courses, outreach programs and opportunities for placement.

Being a multi-faculty institute of higher learning with exceptionally well-qualified teaching faculty, we constantly work towards the holistic development of our students and aim at honing their skills to make them confident and successful individuals of tomorrow. The College offers a wide variety of academic courses to help students pursue their higher education and achieve their career aspirations.

In addition to academic growth, the College supports its students for developing their talents through various activities that are conducted during the academic sessions. Our students have brought national and international laurels to their alma mater.

I wish you all an enriching year ahead as we celebrate 50 years of quality education here at GGSCW.

Participative Learning Platforms in the College

National Service Scheme (NSS)

The College has two units of NSS. Number of Seats being limited, volunteers are enrolled on the basis of First Come First Serve. NSS helps to enrich student's personality and deepen their understanding of the social environment. It too helps to enhance socio-economic awareness and encourage the students to impart the same to the community of the area adopted.

The main objective of NSS is to identify the needs and problems of the community and involve the students in problem solving process; to develop competence required for group living and sharing of responsibilities; to help volunteers acquire leadership qualities and democratic attitude and to always practice national integration and social harmony.

Under this scheme, students are engaged in various outreach programmes such as Literacy Campaigns, Blood Donation Camps, Motivational Camps, Awareness Talks, Rural and Urban Projects, etc. Community service ventures give an opportunity to the students to interact with the villagers and slum dwellers, thereby exposing them to the realities of life, and bringing about a positive change in their social perception. NSS Volunteers are required to put in 120 hours of work during the session including a 7-day service camp.

National Cadet Corps (NCC)

NCC inculcates spirit of discipline and patriotism amongst the students. It helps to broaden their outlook and develop the quality of leadership and spirit of fraternity. The College unit offers Army and Navy Wing. Cadets get opportunity to participate in Annual Training Camp, Army Detachment Camp, National Integration Camp, Basic and Advanced Leadership Camps. Cadets are sensitized to India's diversity in National Integration, Nau Sainik and Thal Sainik Camps, All India Leadership Training and Republic Day Camps. There are other activities that are organised for holistic development of the Cadets, namely regular Drill, firing, swimming, cyclothons, cleanliness drives, ship modelling, boat pulling and community work.

The College NCC unit recruits about 120 cadets, who are given basic training in small arms and parades. As per the NCC rules, a Cadet is required to attend the annual training camp of the unit and undergo service training of 40 parades during the academic session. The holders of NCC, A, B and C certificate shall be given the weightage in marks for admission to various courses in the University teaching departments and its affiliated Colleges. The weightage of marks is as under: A-1% | B-2% | C -3%. The maximum weightage in marks is 4% for distinction in any or all the curricular activities.

Gurmat Vihar Sabha

The Gurmat Vihar Sabha endeavors to enrich the lives of the young women by developing firm spiritual strength in them. The inculcation of strong ethical, moral and spiritual values is made possible by actively involving the students in various religious activities. Theological discourses/ workshops are arranged in the College, which help the students to evolve as good human beings and contribute meaningfully to society at large.

College Magazine

The College Magazine, Gyan Manik is published annually. It contains a collection of articles, poems, stories, etc., in different languages by the students as well as the teachers. The Editorial Board, headed by a senior faculty member from the language department, comprises teachers and students who select the best articles and edit them for publication. Through their contributions, students are given an opportunity to develop their writing skills and give expression to their thoughts and imagination. Based on the quality of their inputs, prizes are awarded to the Best Contributors in each section.
